New Teachers Retreat Honored at Stay Work Play New Hampshire's Rising Star Awards

October 3, 2017

Bow, N.H. - Last night Stay Work Play New Hampshire held their annual Rising Stars Awards. The New Teachers Retreat was selected as one of three finalists in the Leadership Development Program of the year category.

The New Teachers Retreat was honored to be considered among the finalists this year. "New England and New Hampshire truly are a center of excellence in the area of education and we are proud to be contributing to that work," said Alexandra Stewart, Executive Director of the Retreat. "Education is the backbone of civic life and by supporting our schools we are supporting our communities at every level."

Members of the New Teachers Retreat attended the event. "It was a great event," said Svea Schreiner, Curriculum Director. "Stay Work Play does a great job highlighting all of the unique and rich opportunities that New Hampshire has to offer. We appreciate being considered among them."

Stay Work Play New Hampshire is a non-profit whose mission is "to work collaboratively across New Hampshire to support ongoing economic, workforce, and community development by promoting the state as a favorable place for young workers and recent college graduates to stay, work and play, when considering employment and lifestyle opportunities."
